COLLECT

Merciful God,
your Son came to save us and bore our sins on the cross:
may we trust in your mercy and know your love,
rejoicing in the righteousness
that is ours through Jesus Christ our Lord.

FIRST READING:

Jeremiah 8: 18-9: 1

My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick. Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land: 'Is the Lord not in Zion? Is her King not in her?' ('Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?')

'The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.' For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me.

Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored? O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

SECOND READING

1 Timothy 2: 1-7

GOSPEL READING:

Luke 16: 1-13

Jesus said to the disciples, 'There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property.

'So he summoned him and said to him, "What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer."

'Then the manager said to himself, "What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes."

So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, "How much do you owe my master?" He answered, "A hundred jugs of olive oil." He said to him, "Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty."

'Then he asked another, "And how much do you owe?" He replied, "A hundred containers of wheat." He said to him, "Take your bill and make it eighty."

'And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

'Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own?

No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.'

POST COMMUNION

Lord God, the source of truth and love,
keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship,
united in prayer and the breaking of bread,
and one in joy and simplicity of heart,
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Are you looking for answers to the big questions about life? Then Alpha is here to help you. Its philosophy is that everyone should have the chance to explore the Christian faith, ask questions and share their point of view, wherever they are in life. This 8-week course starts on Tuesday 1 October at 7.30pm in church. Sign up in church.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

Celebrating God's gifts and supporting homeless people

We celebrate Harvest Festival on Sunday 6 October with an all age service at 11am. Then do join us in the hall for a lunch of sausages (meat or vegetarian) and mash, followed by puddings.

There is a sign-up list on the events notice board. We are asking people to either pay £3 towards the meal, or bring a pudding for six people.

We are once again supporting the work of the charity The Upper Room in Hammersmith.

It feeds scores of homeless people every evening as well as helping them to get jobs and housing.

The collection at the Harvest service will go to the charity (if eligible, remember use a blue Gift Aid envelope, allowing us to reclaim tax).

We are also asking you to donate food, toiletries or basic clothing. (See and take home the separate flyer with full details.)

Please come prepared to give generously to the charity.

Please help our church to grow by delivering copies of our new leaflet to your street. Sign-up sheets with all the roads we need to cover are in the south aisle.

Wanted: Sweets for treats

We are holding an alternative night of fun on Halloween for young people. Dani needs donations of sweets (there's a box in the baptistry) and volunteers on the night.

Traidcraft Stall next week

The next stall is a week early on Sunday 29 September because of Harvest Festival. Stock up on all your food supplies.

Taize Prayer Service

The Rev Stephen Lewis, recently appointed minister of the United Reformed Church, Hampton Hill, is inviting parishioners to attend a Taize Prayer Service on Monday 30 September at 8pm. A Taize service involves the singing of distinctive and repeated prayer chants.

Womens' Vocations Day

If you are considering church ministry (lay or ordained) there is a Womens' Vocations Day on Saturday 5 October at St Mellitus College, with seminars and worship together. See notice board for more details.

Alpha Course

If you are coming (see inside this pew sheet) please sign-up on the notice board. We also need volunteers to cook the meals.

Bishop's Teaching Evening

Bishop Graham is holding a series of teachings, exploring the theme of incarnation. The nearest will be at All Hallows, Twickenham, on Wednesday 16 October at 7.30pm. The event is free and no booking is necessary.

Archdeacon Stephan

A thanksgiving service is being held on Friday 22 November at 7pm at St Paul's, Queen Caroline Street, Hammersmith, to mark the retirement of Stephan Welch, Archdeacon of Middlesex. Email Jane.Bezant@london.anglican.org if you would like to go. To pay towards a gift contact the office.

St Richard's marathon

Craig Holmes, vicar at St Richard's, Hanworth, is running 170 miles across the desert of Arizona and Utah in aid of Project Grow. If you would like to sponsor him, the details are on the notice board.
