

HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

THE VICARAGE,
HAMPTON HILL,
March 1st, 1922.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

The Solemn season of Lent begins on this date. You will find elsewhere the arrangements that have been made with regard to Sermons and Subjects; will you pray for those who speak that they may have a real message from God for His People.

In Lent the Christian goes into training; he sees the Cross before him, not shrouded in darkness, as once it was, but set against the background of the sunrise of Easter—the symbol not only of a tragedy, but of a triumph; but that victory is to be won by stern self discipline. We take up our cross, not resentfully, as men condemned to a harsh penance; but gladly, as men who rejoice to follow Christ.

Let the marks of Lent be for us, dissatisfaction with ourselves; true repentance; resolute determination.

Some real self-denial is a wonderful tonic for the soul; take for example, one of the Lenten saving boxes for the Police Court Mission, a work that is carrying on the Master's desire for those "being lost."

Make a real effort to attend regularly the Holy Communion, specially at 7.30 a.m. if possible. Undertake some real work for the Church. I am always glad to find a "job" for those who are "unemployed" in this connection, and there are far too many!

We welcome Mr. Norris as an additional teacher in the Boys' Sunday School, and Miss Furner as a new voluntary Church cleaner; two or three more are sadly needed.

I am sorry that illness compelled me to drop the 7.30 Holy Communion towards the end of February, but I hope to be able to resume the service on March 1st. You will be glad to hear that the Rev. J. F. Laughton has kindly consented to act as "part-time" Curate, until I am able to secure a resident colleague.

The next "Social" takes place in the Boys' School, on Friday, March 10th, the only drawback on these gatherings is the smallness of the Boys' School.

I shall be calling a meeting sometime in March to consult you about our Summer Fête; please make a point of being present when you hear the date announced in Church.

Yours very truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.

I.

LET US PRAY.

That God will pour out on all our people the spirit of grace and of supplications;

That we may learn to do all our work in the spirit of prayer;

That we may persevere in prayer, both public and private;

That we may give ourselves to it, as to a real work for God, and for the Church, and for our country.

II.

For a blessing upon all efforts that are made, according to the Will of God, to raise the money needed for the Diocese, and for the Church at large;

That all our efforts may be made in the right spirit, and in righteous ways;

That there may be no need to curtail good work for lack of money;

That we may not neglect prayer, nor work, nor self denial as the weapons of our warfare.

III.

For the blessing of God on the Missionary Societies that their work may not be hindered by lack of men or money;

That they may be enabled to increase and extend, and strengthen their work;

That we at home may realise God's need of men and women to be His fellow-helpers in the winning of souls;

For a blessing on all who are in training for the missionary work of the Church over-seas.

IV.

For the Bishop that he may be restored to health, and may regain strength for his work through another year;

That God would guide and prosper, and bless all that he takes in hand for the furtherance of God's Kingdom in the Church, and in the Diocese.

O LORD hear our prayer;
And let our cry come unto Thee.
