

HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

THE VICARAGE,
HAMPTON HILL,
April 1st, 1927.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

It was a great disappointment to me that so few of the parishioners took the trouble to attend the meeting which was held last month to consider what they wished with regard to the Day Schools, and to find out what amount of financial support we might expect from them if we proceeded to carry out a plan for the alteration of the girls' and infants' building, so that we might keep the boys and girls up to the age of nine years under our control. However, the evidence from silence as regards both the meeting and also the promise of financial help is really so strong, that I take it as the determined mind of the Parishioners that they do not desire that any part of the schools should be retained by the Church. If thus it happens that all the children pass from our control to that of the Middlesex Education Authorities, it will behove us to see to it that our Sunday Schools and Bible Classes are brought to such a state of proficiency that the children will not suffer from the loss of definite Church teaching in Day School. I shall be extremely sorry to have to a certain extent lost what I would call the personal Church touch with the schools; but I do feel that there would be very little gain to the Church in running what, after all, is an Infants' department.

So far the numbers who gather to the special Lent services indicate an appreciation of the Clergy who have kindly come to direct our thoughts and meditations. Of course these services lead us on to Holy Week and Good Friday, and I would draw your attention to the list of services for that week which you will find under the Parish News. Up to the present I have not succeeded in obtaining a Priest to conduct the Three Hours' Devotion on Good Friday, but I hope before the Magazine is in circulation to hear of one who will come. May I again remind you that Good Friday, as far as sincere followers of Jesus Christ are concerned, is not a holiday, but a Holy Day, and that if we love Him Who so loved us as to die upon the Cross for us, the best way of showing our love is to be as near as possible to Him during the whole time of the commemoration of those terrible Three Hours' Suffering for us men and for our salvation.

In the evening of Good Friday the choir are going to render the sacred cantata, "Olivet to Calvary." This is a service which all through is full of suggestions for meditation upon the Passion of our Blessed Lord. To be present, then, is a fitting way of spending part of the closing hours of this Holy Day.

The services for Easter Day are given under the Parish News. You will notice that I have asked for the names and addresses of all communicating on that day. I shall be grateful for gifts of flowers, etc., for the decorations: they should be sent to the Church on Saturday morning as soon after half-past nine as possible.

The Confirmation Classes have just started. As the Confirmation is at our own Church this year, we should have a record number of candidates.

The new cupboard in the Baptistry completes our missionary corner as far as the furniture is concerned. It is a fine piece of work and very beautifully finished. We are most grateful to Mr. Arthur Cox for all the trouble he must have taken in making it. We hope soon to have the cupboard full of interesting books on the Work of the Church Overseas for lending, and we shall be glad of gifts of such books. I am glad to say that there is a steady increase in the number of borrowers of the present limited number of books we already have.

The date of our Fête has been fixed for Wednesday, June 15th, and we are to have a general meeting to discuss the details on Monday, April 4th, in the Church Room, at 8.30 p.m. I hope to have a room packed with people full of new and original suggestions.

Spring cleaning naturally suggests jumble sales. Well, we are having one on Saturday, April 9th, and we shall be grateful for anything you are anxious to dispose of. Boys will be making a house-to-house visitation and will be glad to relieve you of your jumble. If it is not quite ready they will make a note of the most convenient day and time to call again. I have also made arrangements for a van to call on Friday, April 8th, in the afternoon, at the houses of those who send me a card with their names and addresses before Wednesday, April 6th.

I have just heard from Mr. Alford that two of his boys have gained scholarships to the Acton and Chiswick Junior Polytechnic. William David Surman has been awarded a trade scholarship by the Middlesex Education Committee, entitling him to two years and possibly three years free education, together with a maintenance grant. This, according to the school records, is the first occasion on which a "County" trade scholarship has been awarded to our school.

Benjamin William Harbottle has been awarded one of the two trade scholarships given by the Governors of the Hampton English School Foundation. It entitles him to free education and a maintenance grant at the Acton and Chiswick Junior Polytechnic for two years. We heartily congratulate these two lads on their success.

I have received a cheque for £3 8s. from Mrs. Copelin towards the Parish Hall fund. It is the result of a whist drive which she kindly held at her house. I am very grateful to Mrs. Copelin and to her friends who gave some of the prizes for this addition to our fund.

With every good wish for a happy Easter,

I remain,

Your faithful friend and Vicar,

FREDK. P. P. HARVEY.

An interesting lantern lecture on "Islam," given to the Association by Rev. C. B. Howe, of the S.P.G., in the Church Room, on Friday, 11th March, was attended by some thirty members and visitors. With the aid of a large selection of recent and splendid slides, the lecturer was enabled to give his audience a vivid and up-to-date view of the Moslem world as it is to-day.

The monthly Intercession Service for Foreign Missions was held on the following Sunday, after Matins, and attended by 21 members of the Association.

The Missionary Tract Case and Lending Library have been well patronised since their establishment in the Baptistry, but it appears not to be generally known that members of the congregation, other than members of the Missionary Association, are invited to make use of them.

The pageant will depict the state of the world before the time of Christ, the coming of the Light and the first spreading of the Good Tidings through the world, and will go on to show the part that S.P.G. has played since 1701 A.D.

Seats are now being booked: prices range from 1s. to 10s. 6d. A 'bus for the Albert Hall will start from St. James' Church, at 6 p.m., on Friday, April 29th.
