

Quiz - St. James's Church

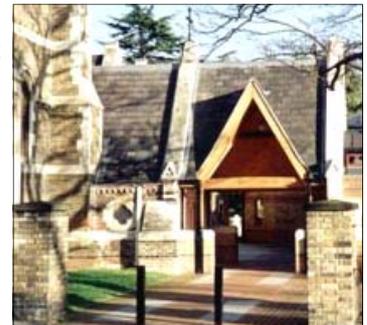

- Colour the picture
- Fill the gaps below using the following words: (Hampton Hill, parishes, 1863, church, Victorian)

Our country is divided into and each parish has its own St. James's is the Anglican Parish Church of It is an elegantchurch built in marking the beginnings of Hampton Hill as we know it.

- There are two entrances to the church, the south porch and the west porch. One was built in 1994 and the other in 2005. The parish office is in one of them.

Put a ring around the correct answer:

- Which picture is the south porch? 1 or 2
- Which was built in 2005? 1 or 2
- Which one has the parish office in it? 1 or 2
- Which one also leads to the church hall? 1 or 2

- When the church was built and other parts added, they were consecrated. Consecration means 'setting apart' or becoming 'holy' and being dedicated to the service and worship of God. The church has three foundation stones, which were consecrated at the beginning of each building project.

Which is which? Put a ring around the correct answer below:

- When the church was first built. 1, 2 or 3
- When the tower & spire were added. 1, 2 or 3
- When the hall was built. 1, 2 or 3

- Where is the church hall?
 - in School Road
 - next to the church
 - next to the school
- When was it built?
 - in 1994
 - in 1863
 - in 2008

- The vicarage is next to the church and has a shell over the front door. There are several shells in and around the church. Why do you think that is? Is it answer 1 or 2?

1. Cockle shells were very popular at that time.
2. There are cockle shells on the beaches of Galacia in Northern Spain where St. James's relics were brought on the way to Compostela and these were adopted as symbols of St. James from Medieval times up until the present day.

