HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

THE VICARAGE,
HAMPTON HILL,
February 27th, 1915.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

The Lenten arrangements appear elsewhere in this Magazine. I hope the additional Services will meet the needs of many. Eleven o'clock in the morning did not seem to be a convenient hour for our daily service, so that, for the present, we shall have daily evensong, except on Wednesdays, at 5.30, with Litany on Wednesdays and Fridays at 12, and Holy Communion on Thursdays at that hour.

I trust a large number will attend the Confirmation Service on Sunday, March 7th, at 3 p.m., and thus aid, by their prayers, those who are taking this most important step of their lives.

We are all much indebted to the S. Alban's C.E.T.S. members for a very delightful entertainment given to a crowded "House," on February 16th, when the Boy's Schoolroom was packed: the next C.E.T.S. gathering will be held in the Church Room on Monday, March 8, when a Lantern Service will be given and Dr. Leeson, of Twickenham, will be the speaker.

I shall be glad if all those who appreciate the excellent condition in which our churchyard is kept, will send, during this month, a contribution towards the Fund to Mr. Churchwarden Oatway, the Treasurer: the Fund needs and deserves greater support, specially from those who have loved ones resting there.

A statement concerning the Free-will Offering scheme appears below. I hope the time is not far distant when every member of the Congregation will think it a duty to join in this scheme.

The War is still claiming its victims, to Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins, of Edward Road, we tender our sympathy in the loss of one of their sons, who was killed in action in France, and quite recently an unexpected blow has fallen upon Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, of Gloucester House, whose son Harold Seymour, was killed in the riots at Singapore: we all share in their sorrow.

Yours truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.

Parish Notices.
