HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

HAMPTON HILL,
March 24th, 1919.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

I was very sorry indeed to have to postpone the Confirmation Classes, which means that those who had already begun their preparation must now wait for their Confirmation until June 29th, when the Bishop has consented to receive Candidates from this Parish at Holy Trinity Church, Twickenham, at 3 p.m. on that day. The Classes will be resumed in May, of which due notice will be given.

My thanks are due to the Rev. T. Price-Rees for his kind and ready help during my illness, and also to our old friend and colleague, the Rev. F. St. Clair Goldie for his assistance.

I hope to issue a Special List of Services for Holy Week and Easter-tide, which I trust will be found useful to us all, I pray that we may have a very happy and holy Easter, no longer overshadowed by the tragedy of war.

A Statement will soon be issued in connection with the War Memorial, the Committee have had several Meetings, but, at this moment, no definite decision has been made.

We all of us sympathize with Miss Lambert in her long and tedious illness. She is much missed, both in her District and in the Parish generally; we all pray that she may soon be restored to health and strength.

Mr. Willis and Mr. King have now been demobilized and have received a warm welcome at their former positions as Assistants in the Boys' School.

Will you please make a note of April 24th? the Easter Vestry will be held on that date, in the Church Room, at 8 p.m. I hope that as many as possible will attend, as questions of considerable importance will be brought forward.

Mr. W. T. Lowdell has very kindly presented to the Church a very useful anthracite stove.

This has been placed in the Vestry, and has turned an ice-house into a very comfortable room. This gift is much appreciated, not least by the organist and choir and myself.

Yours truly,
R. COAD PRYOR.

Parish Notices.

CHURCH ARMY.—Annual Meeting, Queen's Hall, Thursday, May 1st. Tickets for free numbered and reserved seats for Afternoon or Evening Meeting can be obtained on application to Church Army Head-quarters, Bryanston Street, London, W.

The Vicar acknowledges the receipt of £10 (two £5 notes) placed in the offertory bag at the Evening Service on March 23rd. The amount has been sent, as requested, to Mrs. Kiddell, Hon. Sec. of the Church Missionary Society.

GIRL GUIDES.—A very interesting ceremony took place in S. James' Church, on Saturday, March 22nd, when the Vicar dedicated the Company's Colours, kindly presented by Mrs. Le Maitre and Mrs. E. Meynell. There were contingents of "Guides" from Hampton and Teddington, and the C.L.B. attended with their Bugle Band. The "colours" will eventually be hung in the Church.

WANTED.—Two Hundred Cups, Saucers, and Plates for use at various Parochial Gatherings, at present such articles have to be hired or borrowed. The Vicar will gladly receive donations towards their purchase.
